Dear Readers/ Research Scholars,

In fact, Research is a zeal of the mind. This instinct makes people to do all, that they can for the sake of research. For a good researcher, nothing is dearer than research in this world. A devoted researcher devotes all his time to find new inventions in the field of research. He will forget to eat or sleep and always engages himself in the work of research. Because of such devoted researches only the treasure of the knowledge in any field is enriched. Let us salute those pioneers and bow our heads before them with respect and gratitude
