Dr. Ramesh Chand was born on January 01, 1973 in a remote village of Himachal Pradesh, India in a middle class family. In 1993 he graduated from MCM DAV College Kangra, Himachal Pradesh and in 1995 he obtained his Post Graduate Degree in Mathematics from Himachal Pradesh University Shimla, (HP). He did his Ph.D. in Applied Mathematics under the guidance of Prof. Kirti Prakash in the field of “Fluid Dynamics”. The title of his thesis is “Some Problems in Thermal and Thermosolutal instability of Newtonian and Non-Newtonian Fluids”.

Dr. Ramesh Chand has an illustrious academic career spanning over 15 years in teaching and research. He has taught Mathematics at various colleges viz DAV College Daulatpur Chowk (HP), GGSDS College Hariana Punjab, Government College Shillai (HP), Government College Nahan (HP), Maharana Pratap Government College Amb (HP), Government College Dhaliara, (HP) and is presently posted as Assistant Professor in Mathematics at Government Arya Degree College Nurpur, (HP). His areas of interest are: Hydrodynamic and Hydromagnetic Stability, Fluid dynamics, Heat and Mass Transfer, Flows in Porous Media, Instability in Newtonian and Non Newtonian fluid and Nanofluid. He has guided 02 Ph.D Research Scholars and 12 M.Phil Research Scholars. He has published 42 papers in various National and International Journals. He has also co- authored one course book for undergraduate classes.

He has worked on a Research Project “Study on Thermal Instability Problems in Nanofluid” sponsored by University Grants Commission New Delhi, India. He has attended various National and International Conferences. He has been an Editor of various esteemed journals such as Open Science Journal of Mathematics and Application; Pure and Applied Mathematics Journal; International Journal of Nanoscience and Nano Engineering and International Journal of the Scientific and Innovative Mathematical Research. He has also a Reviewer of several National and International Journals. He is a life member of The Indian Society of Theoretical and Applied Mechanics IIT Kharagpur, India and Him Science Congress Association (HSCA) Solan, India.

He has been conferred with Bharat Jyoti Award for ‘Meritorious Services, Outstanding Performance and Remarkable Role in the field of Education’ by India International Friendship Society, New Delhi in 2013 and Best Citizen of India Award by Best Citizen Publishing House New Delhi in 2014.
